Now the news in details.

The Government is to make a statement in Loksabha today on the Mayawati videotape issue. This assurance was given by the parliamentary affairs minister Ms. Sushma swaraj to the members in the house yesterday. In the Rajya Sabha, leader of the house, MR. Jaswant Singh said that the government will examine all aspects but it cannot act solely on the basis of newspaper report.

The Mayawati videotape issue rocked both houses of parliament with the opposition demanding CBI probe into the alleged corruption. They said that in the tapes shown on TV channels on Monday Ms. Mayawati had demanded for her party a portion of the commission, her BSP MLA's and MPs receive from. The projects executed from their local area development fund.

While, the BSP members made counter charges saying SP leader Mulayam Singh Yadav took about 25 lacs of Rupees from his party MPs for a college.

That's all in today's bulletin, have a good day.
